David:

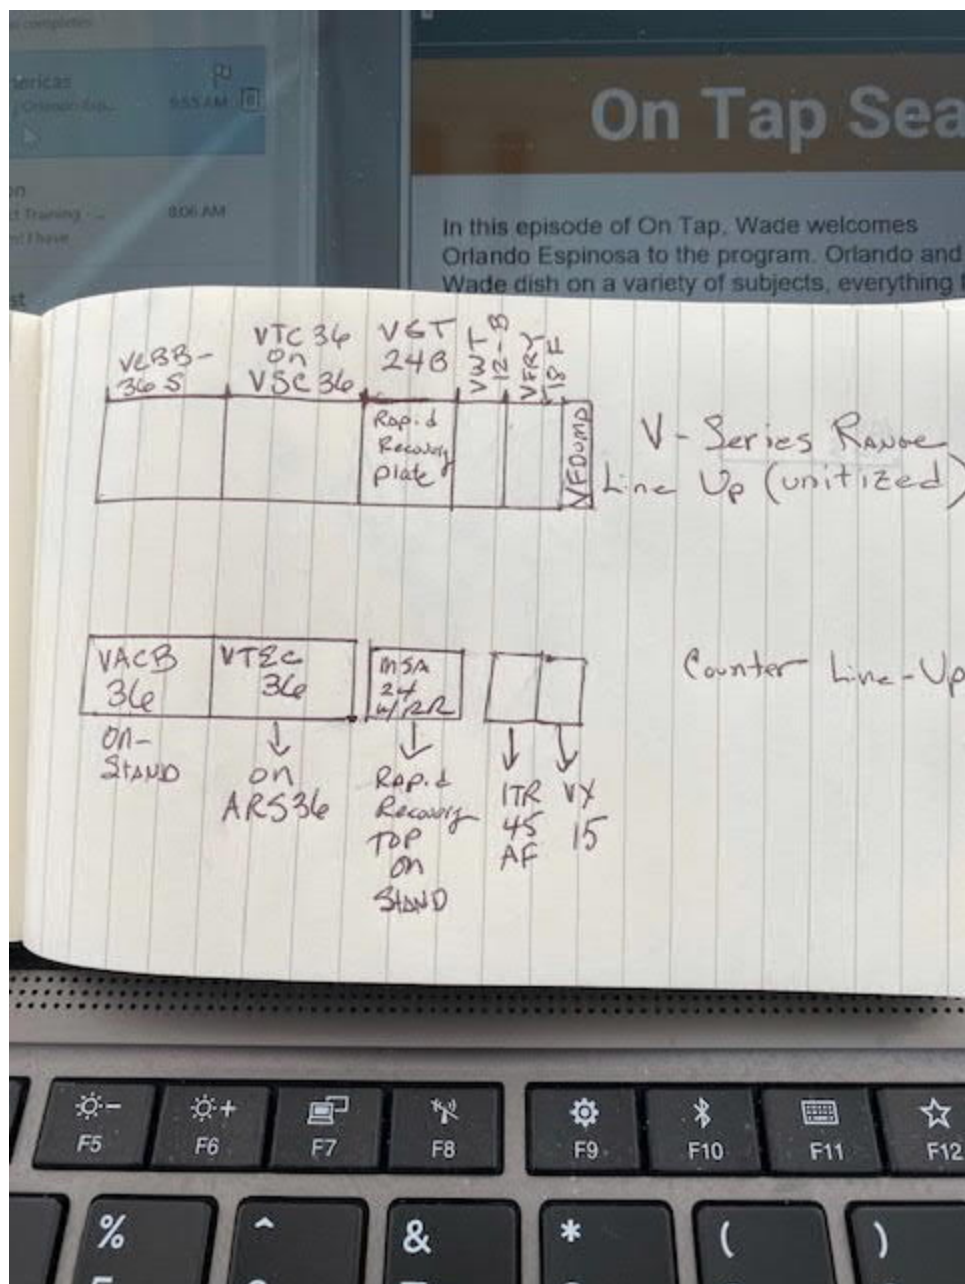

Could I please get a drawing of the two line-ups in the photo below, one a V-series line up and the other a counter line-up with some similar equipment. This is for a presentation, and I would need both line-ups to be on the same sheet so I can incorporate into a PPT. The project can simply be called "Vulcan Integrated Technology". Could I possibly get this by 9/22?

Thank you, Dan
