Hi David – I wanted to confirm that this drawing request was forwarded on by Chris at Vulcan. If not, can you please proceed on what is shown on the attached PDF? Let me know if you have any questions.

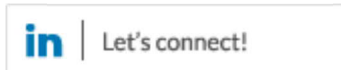

Thank you,

Morning Chris – Is David Bethel still the one for Heavy Duty lineup renderings? I am trying to close on the 2 shown in the attachment.

Thank you,

Morning David - My apologies, but can you remove the back shelves and just use the standard stub riser. Also, show everything on casters? This would also apply to the 2nd lineup as well.

Thank you,
